School Board Looks At Millage Options

The Crawford AuSable School Board of Education will consider three options for a millage renewal election this spring.

A three-year millage approved by voters in 1982 expires this year, and in order for the school district to collect summer taxes, a renewal has to be approved this spring.

The board at a Monday night meeting, Feb. 11, starting at 7:30 p.m. in the GHS library, will choose one of three options:

I. Renewal of 16.9 mills plus one mill for three years to maintain current operations. Election date April 2.

II. Renewal plus one mill for three years, and three separate millage requests: one mill for maintenance for 4 years, 3/4 mill for curriculum improvements for 3 years, and one mill for fund equity for 2 years. All issues on April 2.

III. Renewal plus one mill on April 2. Three additional millage requests (one mill for maintenance, 3/4 for curriculum, one mill for fund equity) on regular June 10 election.

Superintendent Kent Reynolds said the operational millage was reduced one mill in 1982 when the three-year millage was approved and the school district is asking to have that one mill back.

He says the school district needs the mill back to maintain the current program. Without getting the one mill back, the district will be about $110,000 in deficit next year, he says.

The only way to avoid the deficit without getting the one mill back will be a large reduction in programs including lay-offs.

Reynolds said the school board kept their promises made three years ago when the three-year millage was approved. The board said it wouldn't come back during those three years for additional millage, the board said it would improve maintenance, and it would improve curriculum programs.

"We acted within our budget for those three years even though revenues didn't come in like expected," Reynolds said. "We reached a point now where we can't continue operating at the same levels without getting that one mill back."

The board needs to make a decision Monday night if they want to make the summer tax deadline. Reynolds said an extra election before the regular June school election will cost $3,500 but the district will need to borrow $1.5 million if summer taxes aren't collected.

The interest on the $1.5 million loan could cost the district more than $100,000. If voters approve the millage by April 2, the district will collect summer taxes and avoid borrowing money and paying interest.

Traffic Accidents Increase, B & E's Drop in County

Don't tell motorists in Crawford County the deer population is declining — they won't believe it.

Deer-car accidents increased nearly 50 percent from 1983 to 1984 in Crawford County. Deer-car mishaps jumped from a total of 137 in 1983 to 204 in 1984.

Other automotive accidents in the county also increased sharply, going from a total of 362 in 1983 to 439 in 1984, according to the 1984 annual Crawford County Sheriff Dept. report.

Motorcycle or off-road vehicle accidents increased in 1984 from a total of 36 in 1983 to 44 while snowmobile and boating accidents declined from 27 in 1983 to 10 in 1984.

In other, sheriff department statistics, breaking and enterings showed another significant decline of nearly 20 percent in the county. In 1984, 240 B & E's were reported compared to 305 in 1983 and 351 in 1982. Part of the decline could be attributed to 5,206 property checks logged by the sheriff dept. in 1984.

Felony assaults jumped in 1984 to 46 from totals of 15 in 1983 and 16 in 1982 — an increase of more than 200 percent in one year.

There were no homicide attempts investigated in 1984; there were two in 1983. Suicide attempts, however, increased from three in 1983 to seven in 1984.

There were two traffic fatalities in 1984, the same as 1983, and 11 natural deaths were recorded in the county compared to 12 in 1983.

Fires in the county increased from 140 in 1982 and 167 in 1983 to 193 in 1984. Explosives found in the county increased greatly from just one incident in 1983 to a dozen in 1984.

Both felonious larcenies (More than $100 taken) and simple larcenies (less than $100) decreased in the county. Felonious larcenies dropped from 120 in 1983 to 106 in 1984. Simple larcenies have continued to decline from 225 in 1982 to 150 in 1983 and 141 in 1984.

Drunk and disorderly arrests stayed the same in 1984 as 1983 at 17 and drunk driving complaints declines slightly from 78 in 1983 to 74 in 1984. There were 109 drunk driving complaints in 1982.

A total of 17 sex offenses were investigated in 1984 compared to 12 in 1983. There were 19 sex offenses investigated in 1982.

Armed robbery totals stayed the same — four armed robberies were reported in both 1984 and 1983.

Overall, the sheriff dept. handled or assisted 4967 complaints in 1984 — an increase of 202 complaints from the previous year.

The number of citations also increased by more than 200. In 1984, 1561 citations were issued compared to 1340 in 1983. Both years were considerably lower than the 1982 totals of 1881 citations issued.

A total of 292 persons were arrested by sheriff deputies — about the same as the previous year. The county jail booked a total of 491 prisoners from our county and nearby counties in 1984 compared to 473 prisoners booked in 1983 and 582 in 1982.

Centel Cable T.V. Buys Grayling Cable Services

Centel Cable Television Company of Michigan today completed the acquisition of Grayling Cable Services Inc., which serves the city and part of the township of Grayling. Terms were not disclosed.

The 1,200 customers served by Grayling Cable increase Centel Cable's total Michigan customer base to 19,000. The newly-acquired system will be operated from Centel's Cadillac regional office, which is about 45 miles southwest of Grayling. Centel Cable recently spent $4 million to rebuild several of its Michigan cable systems, including Cadillac, to provide customers 54-channel capacity and addressability. Addressable technology allows customers' subscription changes to be made centrally by computer and helps reduce theft of the cable signal.

"The Grayling system offers solid potential and can be operated efficiently as an extension of our existing cable properties," said A. Allan Kurtze, group vice president-Centel Video Services, which encompasses Centel's cable operations. "Our immediate plans for Grayling include improving the system's signal quality. We also will be studying the cost-benefits and market demand for additional improvements, such as expansion of channel capacity."

Through its Centel Video Services group, Centel Corporation serves more than 275,000 cable customers in Florida, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kentucky, Michigan, Ohio and Texas. In addition, the company provides telephone service to 1.3 million customer lines in 10 states; engineers and installs advanced business communications systems and networks; distributes telecommunications products; and has entered the markets for videotex, intercity telecommunications services, and cellular mobile telephone service. The company also provides electric service in two states. Its 1984 sales and revenues were $1.37 billion.

Ambulance Runs Up 40%

Ambulance runs increased nearly 40 percent in Crawford County from 1983 to 1984.

In 1984, 521 ambulance runs were made compared to 384 in 1983.

Calls for automobile accidents, respiratory distress, chest pains, and other major medical problems all increased significantly in 1984.

The number of patients treated and carried from automobile accidents increased to 83 from 64 in the previous year.

Chest pains or possible heart attack calls increased to 42 from 30 the previous year. Respiratory distress calls increased to 53 from 29, and other major medical calls increased to 58 in 1984 from 39 in 1983.

The ambulance corps handled 17 calls in 1984 where they found a person dead on arrival. The DOA total increased from seven in 1983.

Patients refusing treatment or ambulance calls cancelled increased to 36 for 1984 from 15 in 1983.

Transfers to other hospitals dropped from 88 in 1983 to 63 in 1984. But transfers to the airport and military medicav increased to 23 from 8.

Another branch of the sheriff dept., the detective program, recorded a big increase in felony arrests. The investigation program led to 63 felony arrests in 1984 compared to 44 arrests in 1983. The program also recovered about $8,000 in stolen property. In almost four and a half

From Our Corner...

Now with Grayling's 60th Winter Sports Carnival in the history book and we have enough of that white stuff on the ground to finish out the winter for the snowmobilers and skiers to have their fun, in our opinion it is time to start thinking spring...even though the ground hog seen its shadow last Saturday and the sages claim that means six more weeks of winter we would much rather think spring...with all the sub-zero days and nights we have had lately along with the bunch of snow, the ol' fella is beginning to get cabin fever...we never were the outdoors sportsman so anyone who has been around here this winter knows how we feel...come on Spring...we're ready...even if it means mowing the grass...

Despite a 20 degree below zero Friday night and not too much above zero Saturday morning the Winter Carnival parade was a success with many numbed fingers and toes, but considering the elements it was fun to watch, especially for the ol' fella, we watched it from inside the office where it was nice and cozy...Bill O'Brien deserves a Tip of the Derby for his efforts as chairman of the event...maybe it is just me, but getting enough people to enter a parade in the winter time is a feat of its own...and then to have it be a success is that much nicer...newly elected Congressman Bill Schuette came to Grayling to partake in the parade and afterwards stopped by to say hi...we like to have connections in Washington...we're getting to that Social Security time and there may be some questions I may wish answered, and by gosh, Bill told me if anything came up that he may be able to help with, just to give him a call...

Last Friday night we did something we hadn't done in quite a few years now, Thelma and I accompanied Coach Tom and Marie St. Germain to the basketball game at Boyne City...they said welcome to Rambler country just before the game started and both the JV's and Varsity took them up on the invitation and came home winners...as I think right now, I can't remember when the last game was we took in...and to think we used to go to all of them, I guess once you miss a couple, and get a might older so you don't know the players very well the interest isn't there as it used to be...we enjoyed the evening very much, it made it better when both squads came home with victories...if things work out right, we plan on going to Gaylord March 1st with Tom and Marie and see our Alma Mater against the Vikings...it doesn't seem possible it has been 46 years since I played for the Blue Devils...I guess it is true though, there are only a handful of people we know who are still up in Gaylord from when we lived there...

An Idle Thought...not that we are the gambler kind, but with the interest that the Michigan Lotto game has caused, we can't for the life of us find a reason why Grayling hasn't had one or even two spots where people can buy tickets...we have always thought Grayling was a centralized spot for people to come to and we are not a small hamlet and especially when the guard train here...we have the Michigan Lottery office here, we just can't figure out why we don't have a Lotto office also...if it would help any, a note to whom may be in command of where the site of the offices are put, we promise to buy two tickets a week...like we mentioned, personally, we are not the gambler kind...we go to Vegas and I can't keep our bride and her quarters out of the casinos...really, Grayling could use at least two offices...

Everyone we talked to Monday said that despite the bitter cold, described the Winter Carnival weekend as another huge success and said it reminded them of the crowds that used to jam the park back in the days of the snow trains from downstate...more articles and a photo page by Jon Thompson appears elsewhere in this issue...a Tip of the Derby from Our Corner to the Naours, John and Norma for the time and energy spent on the pageant and carnival...and the many who worked on committees...

Time to bid T.J., Stefany and Amber goodnight, and to all our readers forget the ground hog...Think Spring, and don't forget your Valentine February 14th...

The Bible Speaks

From Calvary Baptist Church

EVERYTHING BEAUTIFUL Ecclesiastes 3:11

February in Grayling is a good time to look for something beautiful. Some people love the beauty of the snow, and never tire of it. Others become weary with winter by February or March. They look forward to the coming Spring. We have all heard the phrase, "beauty is in the eye of the beholder". The fact that all of us have a concept and appreciation of truth, beauty, and goodness, reminds us that there is a God who created us to recognize and respect these virtues.

Because we are limited by time, space, and a big ego, we seldom learn to really appreciate the beauty of creation as God would desire of us. We are often distracted by the wickedness of Satan, so we cannot see the goodness of God. We become so caught up in violence, lust and pride, that we cannot see God's sovereign plan for the ages. We become so concerned about minor physical problems, that we cannot be thankful for good health. We become so concerned about social injustice that we cannot appreciate the United States of America as the greatest nation on earth.

Are you a beautiful person? We are not talking about outward appearance. Outward beauty is only skin deep, but ugliness goes to the inner depths of the heart. History has revealed that many ugly people had pretty faces. On the other hand, all of us know people so beautiful that outward appearance does not distract from inward beauty.

Jesus Christ was the most beautiful person who ever lived, yet His physical appearance was not appealing. "There is no beauty that we should desire him." Isa 53:2. His birth was humble, in a cattle stall. His choice of home was with a poor carpenter in Nazareth. The prophets said, "Can any good thing come out of Nazareth?" Our Lord Jesus Christ was despised and rejected of men. He died a cruel death upon a cross. However, He is to Bible believing Christians, the most beautiful person who has ever lived. The ugly scars in his hands, feet and side bear witness of His love for me. Those scars in His precious body will be beauty marks to me for all eternity.

We have all read the little sign, "Be patient, God isn't finished with me yet." This is a healthy view for one Christian to have of another. God is working His perfect will out in each individual Christian life. "He hath made everything beautiful in his time..." Ecclesiastes 3:11. God is working out everything in our lives for our good when we are trusting Him. Romans 8:28. He is conforming us to the image of His Son. Romans 8:29. God wants to make you and me into beautiful people. True beauty does not come with youth but with time and spiritual maturity.

Rep. Ostling on Sub-Committees

Lansing - Veteran State Representative Ralph Ostling (R-Roscommon), the ranking Republican member of the House Appropriations Committee, has been informed of his subcommittee assignments on the appropriations panel for the 1985-86 legislative session.

Ostling, who is serving his fourth term on the Committee, and his seventh term in the State Legislature, will sit on the subcommittees dealing with social services, regulatory, natural resources, supplementals and transfers and capital outlay.

"The subcommittee structure of the House Appropriations Committee has allowed me the opportunity to develop a certain amount of expertise in the area of social services, and I am delighted that I will continue to serve on that subcommittee," Ostling explained.

Ostling has led several successful attempts to reform Dept. of Social Services policies and Michigan's welfare programs during his tenure on the Appropriations Committee.

FHA Helps

County Families

Michigan Farmers Home assists 20 families in Crawford County with housing during year.

The Farmers Home Administration helped Crawford County families obtain housing through its single-family and rental programs during the 1984 fiscal year, State FmHA Director Calvin C. Lutz reported today.

The loans, totaling $710,260.00, were made under programs to assist families who are without safe, decent and sanitary housing and who need credit but cannot obtain it from private lenders.

Calvin C. Lutz said that during the 12 months ending September 30, 1984 FmHA provided 20 single-family housing loans totaling $710,260.00 in Crawford County.

National preliminary figures show FmHA provided some 63,000 loans totaling $2.8 billion in all rural housing assistance.

FmHA is a credit agency of the U.S. Department of Agriculture. It provided loan assistance to farmers and other rural residents who need credit but cannot get it elsewhere. All loans are to be repaid in full, plus interest.

School Volunteers

Val Lehti has worked on and off as a volunteer teacher's aide for 6 years while her sons were in the Grayling Elementary School. At present she is helping Shirley Linendoll in the school library. To add to her volunteer credits are: working with the American Cancer Society for 8 years; and acting as vice-president for the past 2 years; has taught religious CCD classes at St. Mary's Catholic Church for 6 years; and she and her husband have been Eucharistic Ministers at St. Mary's for the past 3 years. Val has worked part time for the Crawford County Library for 5 years, and is now using her library skills by helping our school children. She enjoys downhill and cross-country skiing, reads, likes sewing and making some of her own clothes, does various types of crafts, and in the summer enjoys swimming, walking and camping. She is also the mother of two sons, Chris, in 5th grade and Steve, who is in the 9th grade. When I asked her why she was volunteering in the library she said it is rewarding to fulfill a need in the schools, and if you have a certain skill it is good to put it to use. And of course - she enjoys working with the children.

Val added that people should get involved with volunteer work especially the senior citizens who may be alone. They feel needed again and give such love to the children. Many children need this as they may not have grandparents or contact with older people and what they have to offer.

She also feels it is important to take some of your time and give it to others. Thanks Val for caring and sharing with your community and your schools.

Anyone interested in learning more about the Crawford AuSable School's Volunteer Program may contact Mrs. Wolf at 348-7641 ext. 52.

Troop 979 News

Well here it is February already. And that means it is the Boy Scouts of America's Birthday. The BSA is 75 years old this month, and it has had a long history. Many important people were once involved in scouts, like Gerald Ford who is an Eagle Scout. The Boy Scouts has also helped with many projects in the U.S., which are far to numerous to mention here. Troop 979 is only six months old at this time, and we have held many activities for the youth in our community, including the Mackinac Bridge walk, a campout at Sault Ste. Marie, Canada, which we had to walk across the Locks to get to, Service projects, and when we were less than two months old we attended the AuSable District Fall Camporee, which there we took second place in the days activities. This weekend we will attend the district Klon-dike derby which will have competition in Scouting skills like matchless fire building, knot tying, first aid, and problem solving. The afternoon activities are fun events dealing with winter. And a good time is promised to all that attend. Looking ahead Troop 979 will attend the spring Diamond Jubilee in May. We also plan to attend Bear Lake Scout Camp for a week this summer and are planning other activities.

There are many special awards that the scouts can earn this year, and we will be working hard for them.

If you are a boy between the ages 11-18, or would like to help as a leader please call 348-9414 for more information or come to our meeting every Monday night 7:00-8:30 behind Goodale's Bakery.

Inaugural Should be Trimmed

by Richard Millman

PRESIDENT REAGAN is now up-and-at-'em for his second and final term, after an inauguration which was both disappointing and top-notch at the same time.

The thousands of well-wishers who flooded into Washington had to be disappointed that the outdoor swearing-in and the parade were canceled by the weather. So were the vendors and opportunists who sought to capitalize on the pageantry and pomp.

Watching the events from afar, it seemed to me the choice of the Rotunda of the United States Capitol building for the formal swearing-in rite was an excellent move.

Of course, the Rotunda has always been one of my favorite spots in Washington. To me, it's inspirational. It's also free. Much of American history has been played out in the U.S. Capitol building, and the Rotunda is its focal point.

As for the dinners and the parties and the balls, you can have them. Personally, I don't think they add that much to the inauguration rites. They do provide a chance for the faithful to party; but there are enough of those chances anyway.

THE REAGAN Second Inaugural is reported to have cost something like $12 million, most of it from non-tax sources. That's a lot of money...money which could be better used for charitable and humanitarian purposes, in my view.

The unused swearing-in platform on the Capitol steps cost $239,000 to the taxpayers, while the parade route viewing stands — also unused — cost another $600,000. Nothing's cheap in Washington.

Even without some of the pomp and ceremony, the President was sworn in, and the country goes on. Who needs all the trimmings, especially on a second inaugural? Maybe that's the first place for a presidential administration to cut some corners.

One of my more astute political judgments was to forego the opportunity to attend the inaugural this year, opting instead for a vacation in the South. The downside of that choice is that it was relatively as cold in Florida as it was in Washington or Michigan. But in Florida, we didn't have to shovel it, or scrape it off our windshields.

ANYWAY, Mr. Reagan is off and running again to carry his program into effect. It was reassuring to read that Speaker Tip O'Neill has promised to give the Reagan ideas a chance at least to be heard in the Congress.

The President huddled with Mr. O'Neill and other congressional leaders right after the inaugural in what was described as "a love feast."

Reported Speaker O'Neill: "We will give him a vote on the economic and domestic policies that he is interested in... We're not going to block him with hearings and we're not going to block him with scheduling. They (Republicans) will get an opportunity, through the rules, to make their presentation and have a vote by Congress."

I'm sure the majority of voters in the 49 states who voted for Mr. Reagan are heaving a common sigh of relief that Mr. O'Neill and his Democratic cohorts are going to let the Reagan programs have proper consideration.

MR. O'NEILL should keep in mind that Mr. Reagan ran up one of the largest electoral majorities ever, and many of those folks who voted for Mr. Reagan also endorsed his ideas about government and society, as embodied in the Reagan programs as introduced into Congress.

They deserve a proper hearing, and they deserve realistic consideration in Congress and they deserve congressional votes.

Obviously all of Mr. Reagan's ideas will not be enacted into law. No president — even one with as large a popular backing as Mr. Reagan — should receive a blank legislative check from the Congress.

Consideration, yes. Rubber stamp, no. Let us hope, now with Mr. O'Neill's assurance, that's exactly what will happen.

Cigarette Tax Proposed For Anti-Crime Program

Warren M. Hoyt, Executive Dir., MPA

A program to use half of the 10 cents cigarette tax now going to retire the state's accumulated cash deficit for police and fire fighter aid in Detroit and at least 24 other cities with high crime rates and a low tax bases has been proposed by Rep. Morris Hood (D-Detroit).

The proposal is the second so far detailed that would earmark the use of the dedicated cigarette tax once the accumulated deficit is retired and the tax revenue goes into the general fund.

Earlier, Senator Alan Cropsey (R-DeWitt) announced a plan to use the tax to develop a disease prevention program.

But, Hood said he had secured the support of House Speaker Gary Owen, Governor James Blanchard, the directors of the Departments of Management and Budget and Treasury, and Detroit Mayor Coleman Young, so "I hope this program will at least receive some portion of that tax."

Under the proposal, 5 cents of the 10 cent tax would go to the public safety program.

Cities would qualify for the program using a three-part formula that measured the index of serious crime in the area, the area's total state equalized valuation and the total tax burden on residents.

Hood said using that formula, some 25 to 29 cities in the state would qualify including Detroit, Flint, Saginaw, Benton Harbor, Marquette, Grand Rapids, Inkster, Warren and Southfield.

Residents of those cities are overtaxed, and often those that can afford to leave the area because of the tax rates, Hood said.

For example, after Detroit raised its city income tax to 3 percent on the residents and 1.5 percent on non-residents in 1981 it lost 19 percent of its taxpaying households in 1982.

Under the proposal, 33 percent, or $19 million, of the total raised by the tax would go to Detroit, 62 percent, or $35 million, would go to other qualifying cities and 5 percent, or $3 million, would be used in a discretionary fund administered by the executive office to provide public safety assistance for other non-qualifying cities that need help.

The money would be used primarily for maintaining police and fire department personnel, Hood said.

Along with helping provide greater protection to residents, the proposal could help spur economic development by making people feel more confident about the areas affected, he said.

Milliken Endorses Great Lakes Charter
Former Governor William Milliken, as chairman of the Center for the Great Lakes, has endorsed a proposed Great Lakes Charter under review by the region's governors.

Milliken called the proposed charter, which provides policies to resist water diversions, a "precedent-setting document."

Governor James Blanchard has not yet announced his position on the charter, which has been criticized by groups such as the Michigan United Conservation Clubs as being too weak.

In a letter in support of the charter, Milliken said the proposal marks "the first time ten governments commit to consultation and long-term cooperative management on decisions affecting Great Lakes water withdrawals."

It would establish a long-term water resources plan including a policy that no diversions will be allowed if they would have any significant adverse impact on lake levels, in-basin uses and the Great Lakes ecosystem. It would also call for research into the effects of diversions and consumption.

The policy is under consideration by the governors of the Great Lakes states and the Canadian provinces of Quebec and Ontario.

Dental Decay Prevention Stressed by Area Dentists

National Children's Dental Health Month will be observed throughout the nation during February 1985. As part of the observance, the Vacationland District, in cooperation with this newspaper, today begins a series of four articles on "The Various Aspects of Dentistry."

Do you think of your dentist as a person who fills teeth? Pulls teeth? You're right, but dentists do many other things besides these traditional tasks.

Today's dentists spend as much effort on prevention of dental disease as they do treating its effects. This emphasis on prevention has increased since the turn of the century, as the causes of dental disease have become better understood.

The major cause of dental disease is plaque, a thin film of bacteria and by-products that is constantly forming on the teeth. When you eat foods containing sugars or starches, plaque makes acid which attacks the tooth enamel. After many acid attacks, decay can result. Plaque also produces other irritants that inflame the gums, causing periodontal diseases.

Because dentists are aware of the destruction plaque can cause, they take the time to teach their patients about the importance of removing plaque daily. "A clean tooth does not decay" has been a dental motto for years. Along with these educational efforts, dentists and dental hygienists show patients exactly how to brush and floss their teeth to effectively remove plaque.

At regular intervals, patients' teeth will be given a professional cleaning to remove calculus (tartar) and stains on the surface of the teeth. Calculus is a hard, mineralized deposit made up of unremoved plaque. It builds up around the teeth, making it more difficult to remove the new plaque that forms daily. In this way, it contributes to the development of dental disease. Calculus cannot be removed by brushing and flossing, but must be removed from the teeth at regular intervals by professional cleaning.

Another approach to preventing tooth decay is to strengthen or protect the tooth enamel. Fluoride is a nutrient that makes teeth more resistant to decay, and it is of special benefit to children, as it is incorporated into the enamel as the tooth is being formed. The best way to get the fluoride needed for good dental health is by drinking water that contains the right amount of fluoride, approximately one part per million. For those children who live in areas without enough fluoride in the water, dentists may prescribe a fluoride supplement. For some children, especially those who have considerable tooth decay, dentists may also apply fluoride gels or solutions to the teeth.

Although fluoride can eliminate most decay affecting the smooth surfaces of the teeth and the surfaces where the teeth meet, it is less effective on the fissures, tiny depressions, and grooves where plaque accumulates. To combat decay in these areas, dentists are now using pit and fissure sealants. Sealants are clear or shaded plastic materials that can be painted onto the chewing surfaces of the teeth. By forming a thin covering over the pits and fissures, sealants keep plaque and food out of these crevices, thus reducing the risk of decay.

By teaching oral hygiene, cleaning teeth, promoting the use of fluorides, and using pit and fissure sealants, dentists have helped this generation of Americans have better dental health than their parents or grandparents.

Congratulations are in order for three scouts of Troop 997 who advanced in rank. Chris Thompson made Star Scout Dec. 19, 1984. James Mattson made Tenderfoot Jan. 9, 1985 and Todd Neely made Tenderfoot Jan. 16, 1985.

Todd Neely also earned three skill awards, First Aid, Citizenship and Physical Fitness.

During our Dec. 19th meeting Scoutmaster Don Gross took the scouts to Pizza Hut for their Christmas party. The troop would like to thank Pizza Hut for helping to make the scouts party a lot of fun and for the excellent service that was given.

Troop 997 would like to also thank A.J.D. Forest Products and Stampfly Lumber Co. for furnishing the necessary lumber to build shelves in the storage room at Hanson Hills for the scout equipment. The scouts have spent three scout meetings building the shelves under the supervision of Asst. Scoutmaster Gary Cowie.

Our new charter has been sent out and we would like to take this opportunity to introduce our current sponsors, scouts and committee members.

Troop 997 sponsors are the Kiwanis Club and Hanson Hills.

Scouts are: Carl Ohsowski, Kevin Kamph and Chris Thompson all Star Scouts. Jeff Cowie and Steve Gross First Class. James Mattson and Todd Neely Tenderfoot. Eugene Johnson Scouter.

Committee members are Dick Rasmussen - Committee Chairman, Don Gross - Scoutmaster, Dr. Barry Fenn and Gary Cowie - Asst. Scoutmasters, Pam Cowie - Secretary, Evelyn Kemp - Treasurer, Publicity and Advancement Chairperson, Ed Schoonover - Committee member.

Editor's Mailbox

Dear Mr. Allington:

Thanks again for another wonderful, great, fact-filled letter to the editor last week. Haven't you had enough? Are you the type of person who likes to rub it in? Aren't you glad enough that, three times in the past two years, you have snowed the public and got your "No - rejection" vote every time?

Isn't it enough that you, with your misleading campaigns, have literally taken the hand of every grade schooler in the Crawford AuSable district and bit it?

How many of your grandchildren, or for that matter, anyone's children or grandchildren, in this school district will ever have successful careers without quality education?

I hope you sleep well at night thinking of all the positive ideas and efforts you have contributed toward a decent education in this community.

Joe R. Thompson
P.S. By the way, it sounds like you are the utmost authority on everything in this county. So why have anymore elections? We'll just let you run everything in the county. I'm sure you would like that.

Dear Mr. Allington,
I would like to try and answer your questions asked in the Avalanche Jan. 31, 1985. I have not published this information before because the Day Care inspection and interest in the middle school facility, had nothing to do with the Middle School issue.

1½ years ago the Day Care Center started a program for children 6-10. The title given this program is "latch key". It's sole purpose is to make child care available for children after school. When the program started, we did not have room to keep these children at the center.

We were lucky to be able to use a vacant portable at the elementary school. It too was inspected at that time, and met current day care fire codes and sanitation codes.

Due to the fact that the Day Care Center is licensed by the State of Michigan, any building our children occupy must meet updated fire code requirements. In the fall of '84 we found out that the elementary school was going to be using that portable for a special Ed program.

We tried many other alternatives but always faced problems. We were about ready to give up a very good program, when it was suggested we might be able to use an empty section in the middle school adjacent to the library. For inspection purposes, I contacted our consultant, Anne Selega - Department of Social Services. Anne gave me the name of Mr. Fred Wille, retired State Fire Marshall approved by the Dept. of Social Services.

I contacted Mr. Wille and to my surprise he told me he could be in Grayling that afternoon to inspect the site. I phoned Mr. Reynolds and told him we were going to the middle school that afternoon.

Jamie St. John (Co-Director of Crawford AuSable Day Care) and I (Director) met Mr. Wille at the Grayling Middle School at 1:00 Nov. 9, 1984. Mr. Wille informed me that he would be inspecting the room we would be using, the hallways we would pass through and the heating plant.

After inspecting these areas only, Mr. Wille told me "this school is not safe for children". He then filed a report of non-compliance, telling the Day Care what would have to be changed before Day Care children could occupy that one room. I have enclosed the Addendum To Fire Safety Report for your information; (Please keep in mind, Mr. Wille's inspection was for the purpose of child safety. It had nothing to do with the education of our children).

We are currently using the high school facility. It does meet current fire code regulations and it too was inspected by both sanitation and DSS.

If you have any further questions, please do not hesitate to stop at the center or give me a call. Pam Fisher/Director Crawford AuSable Day Care, P.O. Box 66, Old Lake Road, 348-7709.

Each citation of a rule non-compliance is to be briefly described below. The rule number is to be indicated in the left hand column. The description of non-compliance is to include a description of the conditions or factors resulting in the citing of non-compliance and a specific indication of where in the building the deficiency is located. Suggestions for achieving compliance may also be made.

Description of Non-Compliance

1. Provide information as to the material used to insulate the steam pipes; it appears to be Asbestos.

810(4) 2. Enclose the stairways with (1) Hour Fire Partitions including "B" Labeled Fire Doors with selfclosing Hardware and latching Hardware, 3rd story building, occupancy of a room on the 3rd floor.

815(2)(3) 3. Replace the combustible ceiling tile in the corridors with material that is at least "B" Rated Fire Resistive material.

820(1) 4. The second exit would not be acceptable until item's 2 and 3 were complied with.

5. The plaster on the ceilings will have to be replaced and made safe to ensure that it will not fall and cause injury to children. (large room on 3rd floor)

Dear Editor,
I think it is important for people to realize how cruel abortion is. Even if it touches one persons heart or make someone think. It would be worth all the time and effort I put into this short story.

"An Unborn Story"
"Mommy", you found out about me today, how do you feel about me being here, inside you.

When will you tell daddy? Will he be happy to hear? Are you wondering what I look like? My hair is soft brown, my eyes a beautiful blue, I think I look like you both.

I'm a little girl, full of "sugar and spice" you know what they say. My heart is beating stronger every day, I'm growing fast.

But something is wrong, you're not happy, what are you thinking? The time has come, my life was short, Mommy didn't want me, she had an abortion.

I'm a mother of two children, and expecting another. I know times are rough, more so if you have children. But abortion is not an answer, there are other choices. If you're pregnant and thinking about abortion talk to someone, a pastor, counselor or a family member. Don't take a life, just because you made a mistake. A child can bring just as much love, joy, and happiness, as they can pain and sorrow.

Words could never express the feeling you get, when a tiny baby is placed in your arms for the first time. The fulfillment you have knowing you gave life to another living human being.

A child's life starts at point of conception. There is enough killing going on in the world, don't let abortion be another form of murder.

Protect our future. Save a child.

Thank you
Barbara S. Yax

Resource Review

By Bruce Patrick
Conservation Officer

Some regulation changes that effect Crawford County residents have recently been made.

First of all, a Commission Order, which goes into effect on April 1, 1985, raises the minimum size limit on all species of trout and salmon in Higgins Lake to 16 inches. Creel limits remain the same.

Next, Act 307, 1984 amends the hunter orange section of the Michigan Game Law. Basically, what Act 307 does is:

1. Require hunter orange for firearm hunters on all lands, rather than just those lands open to public hunting.

2. A hunter orange hat, vest, jacket, rangear or other outer wear must be worn as an outer garment visible from all sides.

3. Camouflage hunter orange containing at least 50% orange is acceptable.

4. All waterfowl hunters, as well as bobcat, crow, and wild turkey hunters are exempted.

Finally, Act 338 of 1984 changes some hunting seasons and bag limits as follows:

1. Removes seasonable bag limits on rabbits and hares, squirrels, ruffed grouse and ringneck pheasants.

2. Opens year around season on woodchucks, statewide.

3. Extends squirrel hunting season to January 1.

4. Permits hunting of Ruffed Grouse during firearm deer season.

There are other provisions that do not directly affect local residents which will be set forth in the Hunting Guide for 1985.

Act 307 goes into effect May 1, 1985, Act 338 is effective immediately.

Cong. Schuette Named To Leadership Post

Washington — Congressman Bill Schuette has been named to a leadership post in the 99th Congress.

Freshman Whip Dean A. Gallo (R-N.J.) announced Thursday that Congressman Schuette will be the Assistant Freshman Minority Whip, coordinating the activities of the 33 newly-elected Republican members of the House.

"Congressman Schuette's strong record as an organizer of people and his background and talents make him an invaluable member of the freshman class leadership as we face the crucial questions before us in the 99th Congress," Gallo said.

"As assistant whip," said Congressman Schuette, "I will work with House Republican Leader Bob Michel and others to coordinate our efforts among all new GOP members of Congress."

"I am honored by my colleagues' expression of confidence, and will do my utmost to be worthy of this challenge."

Citizens Reports Net Income Rise

Citizens Banking Corporation, parent holding company of Citizens Commercial and Savings Bank of Flint, State Bank of Standish, and Grayling State Bank, reported net income of $3,854,000, or $3.13 per share, for the fourth quarter compared to $1,824,000, or $1.48 per share, in the same period of the prior year.

For the year ended December 31, 1984, the bank holding company reported net income of $10,227,000, or $3.30 per share, compared to $7,554,000, or $2.15 per share, for the same period of the prior year. The 1984 year end balance sheet data includes Grayling State Bank, with assets of $36 million and, for the first time, the State Bank of Standish with assets of $93 million at year end 1984. Grayling State Bank was acquired on July 2, 1984 and the State Bank of Standish was acquired on December 31, 1984.

Mr. Charles R. Weeks, President and Chief Executive Officer, attributed the improvement in earnings to an improvement in net interest margins for the year and non-recurring income in the fourth quarter of approximately $1,300,000 resulting from the discontinuance of the AAA credit card business and refunds of single business taxes for prior years.

On a consolidated basis, total deposits increased by $103,941,000 from one year ago to a level of $1,083,019,000. The loan portfolio totaled $630,281,000 at December 31, 1984 compared to $649,324,000 at year end 1983. The loan totals include the effect of the sale of the $101 million AAA credit card portfolio on October 1, 1984. Total assets have increased $167,301,000 during the past year to a level of $1,300,781,000 at December 31.

Shareholders' equity at December 31, increased to $89,350,000, or $72.56 per share, compared to $81,832,000, or $66.45 per share at year end 1983.

An unfortunately True Story

Lapeer County Press Publisher Ben Myers tells the following story of a young woman who applied for a $4 to $5 per hour front office job at his paper recently. It's a true story, and unfortunately, it is all too indicative of our times.

A young woman applied for a job with us. The local MESC (unemployment office) sent her along with five other applicants. This gal has been unemployed for quite awhile.

The job was in our front office. It pays from $4 to $5 per hour.

Front Office manager Mary Lebo had rejected the other applicants. She asked me to meet this young woman before she was hired.

The application and tests said she was a high school graduate, typing was fine, spelling and math were probably better than mine.

In addition to her skills, she was reasonably attractive, and had a bright spunky personality. Just the kind of person we want working with our customers and classified ads and subscriptions.

The young lady waited until we were alone in the conference room. Then she said: "This is a nice place. I'll make a bit more here than I do on welfare but I'll have to work all day long."

She went on: "Right now I can sleep in late, clean a few houses for cash and be home by three. So I don't want your job."

"If you hire me and force me off welfare, I'll be the most miserable employee you have ever had. Eventually, you'll have to fire me. Then I'll sue you for sexual discrimination."

"I'll get a free attorney supplied by the state. Eventually I'll collect something and be back on welfare."

She didn't stop there. "While I'm suing, you will have to take time out from work to defend The County Press. You'll also have to hire an attorney."

"So my advice to us is sign my little MESC card saying I'm not qualified and you'll never hear from me again."

Now, I knew why she was so bright, she had the welfare system figured out and was living well on it.

I signed her card. She doesn't work here. Welfare is the right thing to do. Without it, the disadvantaged starve or freeze. The unlucky suffer when the economy sours.

But Michigan's system stinks. There are a lot of examples, but when you can get cash change back from your food stamps to buy cigarettes and booze, that's not right. When you can stay on the dole, sleep late and get home early with money in your pocket, the system is wrong.

Michigan's welfare is so liberal, people move here from other states just so they can draw on it.

Now the state has yet another program. Workfare. It costs us taxpayers $21.5 million a year. It is the biggest single program of its kind funded by any state. Its purpose is to teach people how to get back to work.

Michigan's welfare system already costs us $3.2 billion.

Carol Ostentoski of the Thumb area training consortium, a state group involved in workfare says: "One problem with the welfare system is that people get stuck in a program rut. They lose the desire to find a job on their own."

"He's right. The young lady I tried to hire tells the story."

But instead of making simple cuts like no cash change back from food stamps, the state is throwing $21.5 million at a training program to teach people how to work.

I remember how my dad taught me to work. Around age ten, I was told there would be no allowance if I didn't mop the floors and empty the waste baskets at The County Press every Saturday.

No allowance meant no Bismarks at Kruth's Bakery.

I wonder if cutting off the luxuries like cigarettes and booze (like my doughnuts) would keep the poor and unlucky fed, and give the lazy the kick in the pants they need.

Pipeline right-of-ways are popular areas for motorcycles, snowmobiles, three-wheelers and other off-road vehicles. They are also popular for skiing, horseback riding and other off-the-road activities.

You should know that the cleared lane over a pipeline belongs to the owner of the land.

The landowner has granted an easement permitting the line to be built and maintained, but the strip remains private property. Persons wishing to use pipeline right-of-ways must first obtain the landowner's permission.

Call it courtesy, but it's also the law.

While the date may be past, I will wager most of you gave at least a little thought to Ground-hog Day. February 2nd is Candlemas Day. Its origin is in Europe where the bear and badger were supposed to come out of their dens to see their shadow. If the animals saw their shadow, this would frighten them back into their dens for another six weeks. This assured everyone that winter's cold weather would last that long. Here in America the saying refers just to the woodchuck. Candlemas marks the halfway point of winter, so you should have half your firewood left in the shed to carry you through what we know can be six weeks of full-fledged winter yet to come.

While the sun comes up a bit earlier and sets a bit later each day, the cold has such a grip upon the land that it will be a while yet before the lengthening days will have any great effect upon temperatures. Once temperatures start to moderate, you will start to see snow fleas whose numbers seem to increase as the days continue to get warmer. If you have a maple tree and squirrels in your yard, watch as the days warm up for the squirrels to drink the sap from the ends of twigs and branches broken by the winter weather. The squirrels apparently have a sweet tooth also. At this time of the year when cabin fever sets in, be thankful that it is February and not November. Spring is coming and the signs will soon be evident.

Boards and Commissions

The City of Grayling, like most small and medium size cities, has three groups of officials who are responsible for city operation.

The first group is the elected official group which in Grayling consists of 5 city council members. They elect one of the five to be Mayor and to serve as council president and official head of the city.

The second group consists of the City Manager and city employees who work for the city council and operate the day to day functions of the city under a budget and policy developed by the elected officials.

The third group consists of volunteers who do a variety of jobs for the city. They usually work with little or no pay except to serve their fellow citizen. Some of these people are volunteer firemen, auxiliary police and other specialized volunteers. Others are members of various boards and commissions such as the Compensation Commission, Housing Commission, Zoning Board of Appeals, Income Tax Board of Review, Property Tax Board of Review, Grayling Recreation Authority City Representative, or Crawford County Transit Authority Board City Representative.

With about 25 persons needed to fill the spots on these various boards and commissions, vacancies occur from time to time requiring the City Council to appoint new persons to the boards to replace those who have moved from the city or who no longer wish to serve.

The City Council and City Administration are therefore trying to develop a list of persons who may be interested in serving on one or more of these boards in the future.

Please call Jerry W. Morford at the city office for more information regarding the operation of city boards and commissions or to indicate an interest in serving on these important groups.

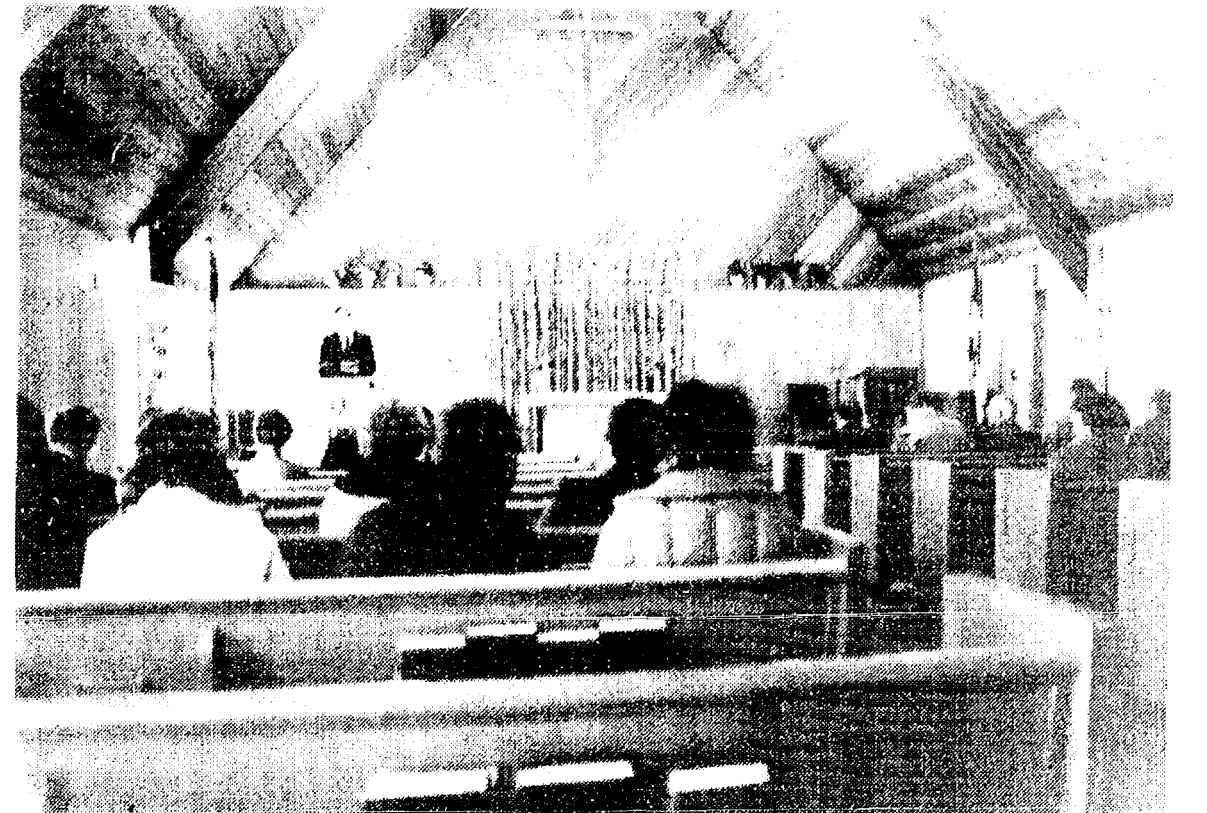

Thank you in advance for your interest in our city and we hope you will decide to become involved on behalf of your fellow citizen.

Registration for Co-op Nursery

Now is the time for registering your three and four year old children for the 1985-86 school year at the Grayling Co-operative Nursery School.

The Co-op Nursery is a private, non-profit school operated by the parents. A board is selected of parents whose children attend the school. The classroom program is presented by a state certified teacher hired by the board.

Classes are held twice a week for three year olds and three times for four year olds. There are morning and afternoon sessions available for each age group. Parents are expected to assist in the classroom one or two days a month as an aide and to take part in school activities and committees.

School activities offer the children an opportunity for growth in social, personal, and academic skills. One or two field trips are taken each month in order for the children to learn more about their community. Holidays and birthdays are celebrated to teach the cycle of the year.

For further information, contact Gloria Dana, 348-7025. A registration fee is required to assure a place for your child.

There are still openings in all the classes for the current school year if you are interested in enrolling your child now. Again, contact Gloria Dana at 348-7025.

Net Income Increases For NBD Bancorp

NBD Bancorp, Michigan's largest bank holding company and parent of National Bank of Detroit, today announced an increase in Net Income of 31.4 percent for the quarter ended December 31, 1984.

Chairman and President Charles T. Fisher III said Net Income amounted to $27,414,000 of $2.28 per share, compared with $20,864,000 or $1.75 per share, in the fourth quarter of 1983.

For the full year of 1984, Net Income increased 15.7 percent of $94,523,000 or $7.90 per share, compared with $81,689,000 or $6.75 per share for the year 1983. The improvement in Net Income for the year was due in large part to a year-to-year increase in average earning assets of 11 percent, or approximately $1.1 billion, and higher net interest margin.

Consolidated Assets were $14.2 billion at December 31, 1984 and $13.2 billion a year earlier. Deposits increased $1.1 billion during the year to $10.1 billion at December 31, 1984, and shareholders' equity increased $57.9 million to $855.5 million at year end 1984.

60th Annual Grayling Winter Sports Carnival

PICTURES BY ADAMS PHOTOGRAPHY AND JON THOMPSON

Chamber Chatter

By Walt Nowak

First things first, and first we wish to extend our congratulations to Miss Grayling, Jami Shepler. We wish her great success, a new experience and we pledge our total co-operation. Once the process of selecting Miss Grayling through the Pageant is completed, then the rest of the public appearances, parades, festivals, float rides, etc. become a shared responsibility of the Chamber of Commerce and we accept that responsibility with great determination and pride, just as we have in the past.

The Pageant is a beautiful thing and a most noteworthy vehicle for the confident development of our young women. It's an experience long remembered. While we're on the same subject, the Carnival Kick-Off Banquet was a huge success, a sell-out, and another opportunity for Miss Grayling along with first and second runner-ups, Chris Lauden-slager and Kim Kinsora, respectively to appear before their subjects. Paul Thomson chaired the successful affair, paying special tribute to Norma Naour, Miss Grayling Pageant Chairperson, to John Naour, Carnival General Chairman, to Larry Raymond, Jon Thompson and Mike Shearer for the Medallion Hunt and to all the volunteers who gave of their time and talent to make the Chamber of Commerce sponsored Winter Carnival a successful affair.

The Chamber appreciated very much the interest and effort of the Community volunteers. Thanks!

There is some effort being generated in a co-operative plan with the Department of Social Services to provide Michigan Opportunity and Skills Training Program, called MOST. It's an opportunity for private employers to add to their work force for training purposes who could eventually become skilled permanent employees. The program is a good one in our estimation and beneficial to the employer. The guidelines and responsibilities on the part of the employer are minimal in nature and certainly worth further investigation by calling the Department of Social Services. The program calls for wage re-imbursement to the employer as well as worker's comp. Beverly Cuthbert, Director, and Staff encourage local participation on either single or multiple employment.

This week we are pleased to announce the membership of the "Offspring" Children's Shop. It will be located in the Grayling Mini Mall and owned and operated by James Barron. A grand opening is being planned for Feb. 14th. Welcome to Grayling, Jim, and to the Chamber membership.

CHURCH DIRECTORY

THE HIGH PLACES

Does the goal you're seeking seem as remote—as unattainable—as this snow frosted mountain top? Does it seem, sometimes, as if you'll never get there? Are you on the verge of giving up?

Don't! Though your objective may seem light-years beyond your reach, if it's the right thing for you, God will help if you'll let Him. The teachings of His Church will give you the patience and endurance you need to accept setbacks...and still keep trying.

Don't try to climb to the top all by yourself. It's a lonely ascent. Let the Church help you, as it helped those who were here before you...and as it will help those who come after you.

Chemical Financial Reports Another Net Income Rise

Robert B. Bennett, Chairman of Chemical Financial Corporation, reported net income for the year 1984 of $6,216,000 or $4.99 per share. This represents an increase of 9% over per share net earnings of $4.58 for 1983 and a 9.23% increase over total net income for 1983 of $5,689,000.

Mr. Bennett stated that the results for 1984 continue the record of consecutive annual gains achieved each year since Chemical became a bank holding company in 1974.

For the fourth quarter of 1984, net income was $1,829,000 or $1.45 per share, up 11.5% from the per-share earnings for the fourth quarter of 1983.

Cash dividends increased 10% over the previous year. Consolidated assets at December 31, 1984 were $770 million, an increase of $52 million or 7% from December 31, 1983.

Chemical Financial Corporation is the parent company of Chemical Bank and Trust Company of Midland, as well as Chemical Banks in Albion, Au Gres, Clare, Gladwin County, Lake City, Marshall, Montcalm County, Cass City and Grayling.

Cong. Schuette to Speak at Lincoln Day Dinner

Newly elected Congressman Bill Schuette will be a featured speaker at the Crawford County Republican Lincoln Day Dinner at the Grayling American Legion Hall on February 23, 1985. Bill announced his candidacy for the office shortly after the 1982 election and spent the next two years working and campaigning to unseat Donald Albosta. His long hard work paid off with a very narrow victory of about 1200 votes in the Tenth District in last November's election.

Bill was born and raised in Midland County. He went on to college and got a law degree before returning to make his home in Sanford and go into law practice in Midland. He is 31 years old and as yet unmarried. He was sworn into the U.S. House of Representatives on January 3, 1985 for a term that will run through 1986.

Bill will report what is happening in Congress and what it is like to be a freshman Congressman both in Congress and around Washington, D.C. Also on the program will be Crawford County native Tom Koernke, now of Grand Rapids as Master of Ceremonies and Mrs.
